Debut.

It hardly seems necessary considering the wonderful success and enviable reputation that "Diamond Dust" won for herself last season, for "Gym-Junk," Diamond Dust's mid-winter sister to make her formal debut, but as we have many new readers this season it does not seem entirely uncalled for to make a few remarks.

This paper was founded two years ago by Doc. O'Donnell and Maurice Pauley. It was at first a crude one sheet form, but has progressed so much in the last two years and the subscription list has swelled to such an extent as to make the present elaborate form possible. It is our intention in editing this paper to further the interest in our national sports and to create a spirit of good fellowship among the students.

THE VARSITY.

After much shifting and hard practice Captain Carmody has finally succeeded in rounding up a winning team. Prospects for a team which might come up to the standard of former years, were anything but bright when the season opened, still as the time went on we could plainly see that each day's work brought out better results, and at present the team is in the best of shape.

Manager Reed's schedule for this season shows that the Varsity will be against some strong aggregations in the future and those with whom they have already battled were the best of their class.

The defea s, suffered sc far, were suffered nobly, and our opponents by no means found it play to down us as the scores attest.

The one g eat feature which we can be proud of in our Varsity, is their willingness, and this one trait goes a great way in winning a game. We like to see them go into the game with this spirit, above all else, and no matter whether they win or lose, as long as they try and play a good clean and consistent game, we are more than satisfied.

And right here it may be well to remark, that this "knocking" of players betrays anything but a spirit of loyalty, and what is more, it goes a great way towords disheartening the team altogether. So let's put all this aside and everybody endeavor to see the best side of the team, and the Captain and Manager will take care of the rest.

Rep Games.

ST. JOE - 31; GOODLAND - 51.

Goodland, Dec. 16. — The Varsity opened this season at Goodland, and as it was the first game we could not expect much from them. Our team was unable to stop their opponents after they obtained a good start, and the lack of sufficient practice was severely felt. We are confident, however, that now Goodland would find it to be a much harder task to defeat them in their present condition. The final score stood 51 – 31, in favor of Goodland.

ST. JOE - 19; MONTICELLO - 29.

Dec. 21, — Monticello paid us a visit, and through their fast and rather rough playing completely overwhelmed us.

It was plainly evident, however, throughout the game that the visitors were more than a match for the Varsity, and so they were again defeated. ST. JOE - 22: GOODLAND - 34.

Jan. 6.—The return game with Goodland was played in the College Gymnasium, and the Varsity was so handicapped by the loss of a few players that they again went down in defeat.

ST. JOE - 32; DELPHI - 25.

Delphi, Jan. 13. — The tide was finally turned when Delphi was forced to bow before the Varsity, owing to their fast and consistant playing. It was the best game the Varsity has played since the opening of the season, and the strenuous practice they have been undergoing is beginning to show results.

MONTICELLO - 42; ST. JOE - 17.

Monticello, Jan. 19.—The Varsity again encountered the invincible Monticello five and were administered a most ignominious defeat. Monticello can well boast of one of the best teams in this part of the state and they are making a great fight for the championship.

DELPHI - 20; ST. JOE - 40.

Jan. 24. — The Varsity were perhaps at their best when they encountered Delphi on their return game in the College Gym. The game was replete with spectacular plays on the part of the Varsity, and they proved to their ardent admirers that they are in the race now for good.

ST. JOE - 44; RENSSELEAR HIGH - 15.

Feb. 1. — Another victory was added when Rensselaer journeyed to Collegeville the other evening and were completely "snowed under" in a fast game which was featured on both sides by long and difficult shots.

EDITORIALS.

KNOCKING—As there is nothing so unbecomming a student and aspecially an alumnus as loyality to his Alma Mater, therere is nothing more detestable in one than this spirit of unrest under restraint and above all this abominable habit of "knocking" Yes, it is a habit or rather a vice. What if every thing does not go as smoothly as you like: it will do no good to knock unless you follow our motto, "knock to boost", but we are afraid that the greater prart of this "knocking" is not done in that spirit.

LOYALITY—Speaking of College loyality calls to mind, what we would call true nobility in one of the Notre Dame alumni. This gentleman lives in Washington. Reading in one of his city papers an account of a foot ball game, discrediting N. D., he looked up the facts and made the editor change it. Boys this is truly an example for us. Who was there among our Alumni to make the Chicago papers correct the misstatements they published concerning the Ritter's game. It is the duty of every student (unless he is shown that his Alma Mater is ashamed of him) to be her defender beyond her gates out in the world where his aid can not help but being most appriciated.

Senior Basket Ball League.

III. COM. - VS - III. LATINS.

The Senior Basket Ball league opened with the game between the III. Com. and the III. Latins. The playing of Beckman assisted by excellent team work gave the Latins a decided advantage and the final count was 24 to 11, the Latins having the long end of the score.

II. Com. - vs - I. Com.

Jan. 22. — The game between the II. Com. and the I. Com. resulted in an easy victory for the former; the score will bear witness; 38 to 19. Sulzbach and Butler were the stars for the II. Com., whilst Endres and Guedelhofer were the support of the I. Com.

III. Com. - vs - II. Latins.

Jan. 25. — Only after a hard fought and interesting battle did the III. Com. defeat the II. Latins. The good work of the guards of the II. Latins and the floor work of Osterloh were the features of the game. The result: III. Com., 28; II. Latins, 24.

SENIORS - VS - III. - LATINS.

Jan. 25. — The Seniors defeated the III. Latins by a score of 21 to 15. The Latins only scored four field baskets, while the Seniors made eight. Good pass work of Meyers and Dufrane featured the game.

I. Com. - vs - III. LATINS.

Jan. 27. — The III. Latins met and easily defeated the I. Com. by a score of 44 – 17. Thiele was at his best and scored ten field baskets whilst Gudelhofer made the majority of the baskets for the Commercials.

II. Com. - vs - II. Latins.

Jan. 28. — The Second Com. won their game by defeating the Second Latins by a score of 27 to 15. The good shooting of Birkmeier and Lenahan were features of the game.

III. Com. - vs - I. Com.

Feb. 3. — The most exciting and interesting game of the season occurred between the Third Com. and the First Com. At the end of the second half the score was tie, and after about five minutes over time it stood 15 – 18 in favor of the III. Com.

Academic League.

Jan. 15. — The first game of this league resulted in a victory for the Maroons, by a score of 23 to 8. Kihm and Sudhoff, and Petzold and McGinty were the stars of the game.

Jan. 18. — The Tigers lost to the Eagles by the count of 27 to 19. Honors were divided between Beckman and Kirchen, who scored five and seven baskets respectively. Jan. 22. — The Maroons still retained their superiority by defeating the Eagles in an interesting, and over time game by the score of 8–17. Both teams were evenly matched and it was an interesting struggle from one blow of the whistle to the other.

Jan. 24. — The Shamrocks met their second defeat at the hands of the Tigers by the close score of 19 – 22. Six field baskets by Kirchen and Sudhoff helped to keep up the interest and excitement.

"AMONG THE JUNIORS."

Jan. 13 — The Cardinals had the honor of winning the first game in the Junior League by defeating the Blue Bells by the score of 22 to 7. Cavanaugh made every field basket for his team, eight in all, while Lambert on the Blue Bells was the only one to win score points for his side.

Jan. 22 — The Laurels defeated the Imperials by the increasing score of 26 to 16. Kozacik was easily the star of the game scoring eleven field baskets for his team.

Other results to date are:

Jan. 23 — Cardinals 14 — Laurels 21.

Jan, 25 — Blue Bells 23 — Imperials 21.

Jan. 27 — Laurels 31 Cardinls 15.

ST. VIATEURS-VS-ST. JOE.

St. Viateurs College will be here Feb. 13th and from all reports St. Joe will have to do some brushing up when they meet this crowd as they come with a reputation of being one of the fastest college teams in Illinois. This is the first time St. Joe. has ever met a team from St. Viateurs, and we would like to acquaint ourselves with them by gaining a victory just as a reminder to them that they had been in Collegeville.

However, some fears are entertained if we are to believe reports, still we do not intend to back down. A good game is expected and all should be on hand to cheer the Varsity to victory.

LOCALS.

Skeets Quinn, who is at present lecturing on 'Fat Men' and their congenial temperament, tells of his experience at 'David's'

Barbar shop, whom he claims tried to beat him out ten cents. Mr. Quinn went into David's with the intention of buying some Postal Cards. "How much are these?" inquired Skeets. "Ten cents a half a dozen," replied David, who was busily engaged in cutting Campeau's hair.

Skeets agreed to take a half a dozen; before he had paid for them he caught sight of his old favorite "Bull Durham." "How much is your Bull Durham," he asked.

On being told it was five cents a package, he changed his mind about the postals.

"If it does not make any difference to you, David," he said, "I will take two packages of Bull Durham."

As he started to leave the store without paying, David asked him, if he had forgotten anything. Skeets thought not.

"Why," said David, "you did not pay me for the tobacco."

"Oh!" replied Skeets, "I gave you the postals for the tobacco."

"But you did not pay me for the cards," David insisted.

"Of course not. You see I did not take the cards," Skeets replied.

"But", David expained, somewhat bewildered himself, "You certainly owe me for the tobacco."

Then Skeets went carefully over the matter with him. "How can I owe you for the tobacco, when I gave you its equivalent in the postals? And how can I owe you for the postals when I did not take them? Is't it perfectly clear to you that I don't owe you anything."

But David was not sure. Any way David said to himself as Skeets left the barbar shop. "There is something funny about it, and I dont want you to come in here again."
